FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
RECEIVED DOCUMENTS
JUL 13 2006
SECRETARY

Dear Sir or Madam:

I'm writing this letter because I'm very concerned about the proposed Business Opportunity Rule R511993. I believe that this could prevent me from continuing as a distributor for Freelife + it's incredible nutritional products, + destroy my small business.

I've been involved with various network marketing nutritional companies for many years + have gotten good health + financial benefits for myself + numerous other people.

The waiting period will give the public the idea that there's something wrong with me or our plan, + also reflects badly on me. I also think this 7 day waiting period is unnecessary because our company already has a 90% buyback policy for all products, including sales kits bought by a sales rep. One of the most difficult sections of the proposed rule is the 7 day waiting period to enroll a new distributor. This will greatly slow down our business.

Our sales kit only costs $35. People buy cars, tv's, + other items that cost a lot more + don't have to wait 7 days for that. Under this waiting period requirement, I'll need to keep very detailed records when I first speak to someone like a prospect, + will then have to send in reports to my company. I'm just a small home business + this burden will hurt or destroy me. This proposed rule is terrible.

Finally the proposed rule requires the disclosure of a minimum of 10 prior purchasers nearest to the prospective purchaser. I'm glad to provide references, but in this day of identity theft, I'm very uncomfortable giving out the personal info of individuals without their approval to strangers. Women in my organization may be subject to sexual or racial harassment, so this part can't go in at all, unless the F.T.C. passes an addition to this rule prohibiting sexual or racial attacks related to this disclosure. In the end, the rule must bind the F.T.C. to take direct enforcement action on sexual + racial attacks with a special unit assigned to monitor actions related to the disclosure forms.

I've seen many scams on the internet + been approached by many crooks, but this rule will do nothing to stop them. They hurt my business! This rule won't stop crooks. They violate the current rule all the time, but I'm a good law abiding American citizen + it will hurt me a lot. Thank you for listening + please help me + my colleagues by putting a stop to this rule.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

P.S. Businesses such as mine have helped many people of all kinds, cultures + ages to develop confidence, speaking skills, sales techniques, communication skills + success at finding the American Dream, that they'd have probably never found without it.
