

Exhibit A

The screenshot shows a user's profile settings page. On the left is a vertical navigation menu with icons and text for: My Information, Profile Options, My Intimate Desires, My Perfect Match, My Personal Interests, Contact Options, Credit History, Manage Photos, and Delete Profile (highlighted in purple). The main content area has a red header with the text "Hide Your Profile" and "Basic Deactivation". Below this is a dark grey button labeled "HIDE PROFILE FROM SEARCH". Underneath, it says "Hiding Your Profile Includes:" followed by a checkmark icon and the text "Removal of profile from search results". A red warning message states: "Important: Your profile information & messages will be accessible to members you've communicated with." Below this is a grey button labeled "Full Delete" containing a white button labeled "DELETE YOUR PROFILE". Underneath, it says "Full Delete Removal Includes:" followed by a list of six items, each with a checkmark icon: "Removal of profile from search results", "Removal of profile from the site", "Removal of messages sent and received", "Removal of messages from recipient's mailboxes including Winks & Gifts", "Removal of site usage history and personally identifiable information from the site", and "Removal of photos". At the bottom, a note reads: "Note: It may take up to 48 hours for some traces of your profile to be fully removed." A vertical text string "ALM-FTC0000112" is located on the left side of the page.
