Plaintiff, the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC" or "Commission"), pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. § 53(b), has filed a Complaint for Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief, including consumer redress, and an Ex Parte Application for Temporary Restraining Order with Asset Freeze, Appointment of Temporary Receiver, Immediate Access to Business Premises, Limited Expedited Discovery, and an Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue ("Application for TRO").

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Court has considered the Complaint, Ex Parte Application for TRO, the Memorandum of Points and Authorities with supporting Exhibits, and all other papers filed herein. It appears to the satisfaction of the Court that:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the case, and there is good cause to believe it will have jurisdiction over all parties.
2. Venue lies properly with this Court.
3. There is good cause to believe that Defendants Merchant Processing, Inc.; Vequity Financial Group, Inc.; Direct Merchant Processing, Inc.; and Aaron Lee Rian have engaged in and are likely to engage in acts and practices that violate Section 5(a) of the FTC Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), and that the Commission is likely to prevail on the merits of this action.
4. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable harm will result from Defendants' ongoing violations of Section 5(a) of the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. § 45(a), absent entry of this Temporary Restraining Order ("Order").
5. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable damage to the Court's ability to grant effective final relief for consumers in the form of monetary redress will occur from the sale, transfer, assignment, or other disposition or concealment by Defendants of their assets or records unless they are immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of this Court.

6. There is thus good cause for issuing this Order without prior notice to the Defendants of the Commission's application, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(b).

7. Good cause exists for the appointment of a temporary receiver for Merchant Processing, Inc.; Vequity Financial Group, Inc.; and Direct Merchant Processing, Inc.

8. Weighing the equities and considering the Commission's likelihood of success in its causes of action, this Order is in the public interest.

9. No security is required of any agency of the United States for the issuance of a restraining order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).

RECEIVERSHIP PROVISIONS

VI.

Appointment of Temporary Receiver

qjs 4/11/07

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Michael Grassmueck is appointed Temporary Receiver for the Receivership Defendants, with the full power of an equity receiver. The Receiver shall be the agent of this Court and solely the agent of this Court in acting as Receiver under this Order. The Receiver shall be accountable directly to this Court. The Receiver shall comply with all Rules of this Court governing receivers. It is understood, given the nature of this assignment, that the Receiver may conclude that there are insufficient assets in the receivership or that other factors warrant withdrawal of the Receiver in accordance with Paragraph XVI below.

VII.

Access to Receivership Defendants' Business Premises

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver and his or her representatives and agents shall have immediate access to any business premises of the Receivership Defendants, and immediate access to any other location where the Receivership Defendants have conducted business and where property or business records are likely to be located. Such locations specifically include, but are not limited to, the offices and facilities of one or more of the Receivership Defendants at 1600 NW Compton Drive, #357, Beaverton, Oregon 97006. The purpose of access shall be to implement and carry out the Receiver's duties set forth in Paragraph VIII, and to inspect and inventory all of the Receivership Defendants' property, assets and documents and inspect and copy any documents relevant to this action. The Receiver and those specifically designated by the Receiver shall have the right to remove the above-listed documents from those premises in order that they may be inspected, inventoried, and copied. The Receiver shall allow the Commission's representatives, agents, and assistants, as well as Named Defendants or their representatives, reasonable access to the premises of the Receivership Defendants. The purpose of this access shall be to inspect and copy any and all books, records, accounts, and other property, including computer data, owned by or in the possession of the Receivership Defendants.

VIII. Receivership Duties

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Receiver is directed and authorized to accomplish the following:

A. Assume full control of the Receivership Defendants by removing, as the Receiver deems necessary or advisable, any director, officer, independent contractor, employee or agent of the Receivership Defendants, including any Defendant, from control of, management of, or participation in, the affairs of the Receivership Defendants;

B. Take exclusive custody, control, and possession of all assets and documents of, or in the possession, custody or under the control of, the Receivership Defendants, wherever situated. The Receiver shall be deemed to be the authorized responsible person to act on behalf of the Receivership Defendants and, subject to further order of the Court, shall have the full power and authority to take all corporate actions, including but not limited to, the filing of a petition for bankruptcy as the authorized responsible person as to each of the Receivership Defendants, dissolution of the Receivership Defendants, and sale of the Receivership Defendants. The Receiver shall have full power to divert mail and to sue for, collect, receive, take in possession, hold, and manage all assets and documents of the Receivership Defendants and other persons or entities whose interests are now held by or under the direction, possession, custody or control of the Receivership Defendants; provided, however, that the Receiver shall seek further authority from the Court, after providing notice to the Plaintiff before attempting to collect any debt from a consumer if the Receiver believes the debt was induced by unfair or deceptive practices, including without limitation those identified by the FTC in this matter whether in the Complaint or in subsequent filings;

C. Take all steps necessary to secure the business premises of the Receivership Defendants including, but not limited to, all such premises located at 1600 NW Compton Drive, # 357, Beaverton, Oregon 97006. any computer modems or other means of access to the computer or other records maintained at the business premises; (6) requiring any persons present on the business premises at the time this Order is served to leave the premises, to provide the Receiver with proof of identification, or to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Receiver that such persons are not removing from the premises documents or assets of the Receivership Defendants; and (7) notwithstanding any other provision of this Order, the Receiver shall determine what constitutes reasonable access by other persons or entities to the business premises of the Receivership Defendants;

D. Investigate, conserve, hold, and manage all receivership assets, and perform all acts necessary or advisable to preserve the value of those assets in an effort to prevent any irreparable loss, damage or injury to consumers or to creditors of the Receivership Defendants including, but not limited to, obtaining an accounting of the assets, and preventing transfer, withdrawal or misapplication of assets;

E. Enter into contracts and purchase insurance as advisable or necessary;

F. Prevent the inequitable distribution of assets and determine, adjust, and protect the interests of consumers and creditors who have transacted business with the Receivership Defendants;

G. Manage and administer the business of the Receivership Defendants until further order of this Court by performing all incidental acts that the Receiver deems to be advisable or necessary, which include retaining, hiring, or dismissing any employees, independent contractors, or agents;

K. Institute, compromise, adjust, defend, appear in, intervene in, or become party to such actions or proceedings in state, federal or foreign courts that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve or recover the assets of the Receivership Defendants or that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to carry out the Receiver's mandate under this Order, including but not limited to, the filing of a petition for bankruptcy;

L. Defend, compromise, adjust or otherwise dispose of any or all actions or proceedings instituted in the past or in the future against the Receiver in his or her role as receiver, or against the Receivership Defendants that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to preserve the assets of the Receivership Defendants, or that the Receiver deems necessary and advisable to carry out the Receiver's mandate under this Order, all notwithstanding the Stay of Actions set forth in Paragraph XIII of this Order;

M. Continue and conduct the business of the Receivership Defendants in such manner, to such extent, and for such duration as the Receiver may in good faith deem to be necessary and advisable to operate the business profitably and lawfully, if at all; provided, however, that the continuation and conduct of the business shall be conditioned upon the Receiver's good faith determination that the business can be lawfully operated at a net profit using the assets of the receivership estate and without resort to any unfair or deceptive practices including without limitation those identified as such by the FTC in this matter whether in the Complaint or in subsequent filings; and taking into account, among other things, that the fees and costs of the Receiver and the Professionals must be paid as senior priority administrative expenses of the receivership estate;

N. Conduct investigations and issue subpoenas to obtain documents and records pertaining to or in aid of the receivership, and conduct discovery in this action on behalf of the receivership estate;

O. Open one or more bank accounts in the District of Oregon as designated depositories for funds of the Receivership Defendants. computer, electronic account, or digital file or telephonic data in any medium; turning over all accounts, files, and records including those in possession or control of attorneys or accountants; and advising all persons who owe money to the Receivership Defendants that all debts should be paid directly to the Receiver.
