re: business opportunity rule R511993

to whom it may concern:

and i think that in its presented form, it would kill my business as independent distributor,that i have work vary hard to build.

and would make it almost impossible for any one in the future to make a living doing the same kind of business.

i have been operating my XANGOtm LLC,business for more than two years now and my family and i depend on the income from it.

two years ago my wife quit her job to take care of our daughter when she was pregnant with my grandson and could not lift any thing over 10 pounds,if it had not been for the income that we had coming in from our XANGOtm LLC buiness we would have lost our house,cars,and everything else for that matter.

the 7 day waiting periodthat is proposed would make people think that there was something wrong with the business before they even took a look at it.

after all there is a 7 day waiting period to get a gun permit with a back ground check.which can do more harm to someones life than a $35.00 investment which is all that it cost to enroll in a XANGOtm sales kit.

further more all of the paper work involved to keep track of the people that i talk to abut my business and when i could possibly sign them up would take more paper than i care to think about,the world uses enough paper as it is why add to it.

and the proposed rule would require that i give 10 prior purchasers nearest to the prospective purchaser. how can i give that information to some one if i am tring to expand in to a new area of the US or another country.

sincerely

Brent&Lorene Shipley independent distributors for XANGOtm LLC.
