

RE: R51193 Business Opportunity Rule

522418-70144

Dear Sir or Madam

I am writing this letter because I am concerned if proposed Business Opportunity Rule R51193 is adopted in its present form, my livelihood as a Mannatech Independent Associate will be significantly undermined.

The very thought of governmental interference in the free enterprise process strikes fear in the hearts of Americans everywhere. Cherished values are at stake, and the FTC needs to be aware of the ill-considered action.

The public is not well served by the FTC's overregulation of an industry that is causing absolutely no harm and more than adequately polices itself by remedying any and all complaints by members of the public. Mannatech complies with all applicable buy back requirements and always makes it easy for individuals to exit the Company, if the business opportunity is not right for them.

While the FTC needs to protect the public where necessary, this proposed rule is hopelessly overbroad and misguided. The seven-day waiting period is unnecessary and will interfere with my ability to enter into lawful transaction and register new associates. People buy TVs, cars and other much costly items without such a waiting period. This proposed waiting period gives the impression that something is wrong.

with the plan. And the burdensome paperwork, which will not even be read by the public, makes it extremely difficult for the individual participant to fully comply, thereby risking fines and other penalties for such failures, however innocent. By these actions, the FTC does a disservice to the consuming public and Americans everywhere who are trying to get ahead by starting their own business, or earning necessary supplemental income to help support their family.

While I appreciate the work of the FTC in protecting consumers, I believe this proposed new rule has many unintended consequences that could be avoided by a less burdensome approach.

Thank you for your time in considering my comments

Sincerely yours
