

PURVIS ENTERPRISES*Pl:*E-mail:

Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20580

Date: June 19, 2006

RE: Business Opportunity Rule, R511993

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to you as I am deeply concerned regarding the proposed Business Opportunity Rule R511993. I fully believe that in its presented form, it would prevent me from conducting my business with XanGo as an Independent Distributor and henceforth destroy my small business.

I have been in Network Marketing for over 25 years and with XanGo since the first of this year. The income that I have made has allowed my family to buy our first home and help support my family.

Due to health reasons, I was researching for something to help my health for me and my wife. I was introduced to XanGo which has a 100% natural fruit juice that has helped with our health problems. XanGo also, has a business opportunity that is helping to produce additional income to support my family. This is really important for us. Please do not destroy my small business.

Some of the proposed sections would make it difficult or almost impossible for me to work my XanGo business.

I work hard to maintain a very level of good ethics in our industry and the proposed waiting period would create suspicion and doubt in our society.

This spring I finally was able to purchase a first new car, (costing over $25,000.00), for my wife in our 34 years of marriage. We were only given a 3-day cooling off time, if we changed our minds. When we became XanGo Distributors it only cost $35.00 one time membership. Even at Sam's Club it cost $35.00 per year and you don't even have a 3-day cooling off time to change your mind. It is my humble opinion that seven-day waiting period is unnecessary, because XanGo already has a 90% buyback policy for the product, including distributor kit purchased by the distributor.

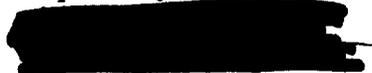

Finally, the proposed rule requires the disclosure of a minimum of 10 prior purchasers nearest to the prospective purchaser. I am glad to provide references, but I am scared with Identity theft on the rise, much less the safety of all parties. Please DO NOT jeopardize our safety and our welfare.

I have seen many scams both on the internet as well as being personally approached by crooks because of my success. This rule will not stop them, it will not stop the crooks they violate the current rules all of the time anyway.

I am proud to be an American, I am an outstanding citizen of this GREAT Country, I served in the U.S. Army and received an Honorable Discharge, Please do not destroy what I've worked hard to achieve and PLEASE help me.

Respectfully,

A large black rectangular redaction box covering the signature area.

Larry W. Purvis