

American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research

J. Gregory Sidak
F. K. Weyerhaeuser Fellow
in Law and Economics Emeritus

Direct Dial: 202-862-5892
Email: jgsidak@aei.org

February 19, 2002

Document Processing Center
Office of the Secretary
Room 159-H
Federal Trade Commission
600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20580

Re: Request for Comments Concerning Disgorgement as a Remedy for Violations of the Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Act, FTC Act and Clayton Act.

Dear Sir or Madam:

In response to the Commission's request for public comments on disgorgement as an antitrust remedy, I submit a copy of the following law review article: Howard A. Shelanski & J. Gregory Sidak, Antitrust Divestiture in Network Industries, 68 U. CHI. L. REV 1 (2001). I request that this article be placed in the record as my comments. Pages 96 through 99 of the article discuss disgorgement as a remedial alternative to divestiture.

I submit these comments in my individual capacity and not on behalf of the American Enterprise Institute, which does not take institutional positions on specific legislative, adjudicatory, regulatory, or executive proceedings.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'J. Sidak', is written over the word 'Sincerely,'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long, sweeping underline that extends down towards the bottom of the page.

Enclosure

The University of Chicago Law Review

Antitrust Divestiture in Network Industries

*Howard A. Shelanski
and J. Gregory Sidak*

© 2001 by The University of Chicago

Volume 68

Winter 2001

Number 1
