This is an e-mail exchange I had recently. It is self explanatory. The email exchange began when I accessed the Claria site to find out what was going on. I used the 'how can we improve link.' I don't know how I would have faired had I billed them as described, but they shut up pretty quickly, although this may have been due to the final paragraph.

Incidently, I use and recommend adaware, adwatch and spybot - search and destroy.
