I. PROHIBITION AGAINST VIOLATION OF SECTION 5 OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ACT

IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, in connection with the offering for sale or selling of any business venture, Defendant and his agents, employees, officers, corporations, successors, assigns, and all those persons in active participation with them who receive actual notice of this Judgment by personal service or otherwise, are hereby restrained and enjoined from making any material misrepresentation or assisting others in making any material misrepresentation, either expressly or by implication, to any prospective purchaser of a business venture, including, but not limited to, the following:

- A. Misrepresenting that consumers who purchase a business venture are likely to earn substantial income;
- B. Misrepresenting that retail locations have already been secured, or will be secured subsequent to purchase, for consumers who purchase a business venture;
- C. Misrepresenting that a business venture, once purchased, will be operational and generating income within a stated period of time; or
- D. Misrepresenting that business venture purchasers will receive substantial and continuous assistance and support.

II. PROHIBITION AGAINST VIOLATION OF THE FRANCHISE RULE OR BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY RULE

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant and his agents, employees, officers, corporations, successors, assigns, and all those persons in active participation with them who receive actual notice of this Judgment by personal service or otherwise, are hereby restrained and enjoined from violating or assisting others to violate any provisions of the Franchise Rule or Business Opportunity Rule, including, but not limited to:

- A. Failing to provide a prospective franchisee or business opportunity purchaser with a complete, accurate, and up-to-date disclosure document as prescribed by the Franchise Rule or Business Opportunity Rule;
- B. Failing to provide each prospective franchisee or business opportunity purchaser with complete and accurate documentation for any earnings or financial performance representations, as required by the Franchise Rule or Business Opportunity Rule;
- C. Failing to have a reasonable basis for any earnings or financial performance representation at the time such representation is made, as required by the Franchise Rule or Business Opportunity Rule; or
- D. Failing to disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner, in immediate conjunction with any earnings or financial performance representation, that material which constitutes a reasonable basis for the earnings or financial performance representation is available to a prospective franchisee or business opportunity purchaser, as required by the Franchise Rule or Business Opportunity Rule.

III. PROHIBITION AGAINST OTHER MISREPRESENTATIONS VIOLATING SECTION 5 OF THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ACT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in connection with the offering for sale or sale of any good or service, Defendant and his agents, employees, officers, corporations, successors, assigns, and all those persons in active participation with them who receive actual notice of this Judgment by personal service or otherwise, are hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from:

- A. Misrepresenting, directly or by implication, to any potential purchaser of goods or services, any material fact, including, but not limited to:
 - 1. The sales or transaction volume, income, or profit likely to be achieved from the purchase of any goods or services;
 - 2. The total cost to purchase, receive, or use, and the quantity or nature of, any goods or services that are subject to the sales offer;
 - 3. Any material restrictions, limitations, or conditions to purchase, receive, or use the goods or services; or

4. Any material aspect of the nature or terms of a refund, cancellation, exchange or repurchase policy for the goods or services; and
- B. Providing substantial assistance to any third party to make any material misrepresentation, including, but not limited to, those misrepresentations prohibited by Paragraph III.A, above.

IV. EQUITABLE MONETARY RELIEF

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that:

- A. Judgment is hereby entered in favor of Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission and against Defendant in the amount of $4,250,000 (four million two hundred fifty thousand dollars), which the FTC alleges is the amount of injury suffered by consumers. Upon Defendant's compliance with the provisions of Paragraph IV.B of this Judgment, the payment requirements of this Judgment shall be suspended subject to the conditions set forth in Paragraphs IV.D and IV.E of this Judgment.
- B. This Judgment shall be partially satisfied by Defendant's payment to the Commission all of funds contained in each bank account listed in Appendix A of this Judgment. Defendant shall, within five (5) days of entry of this Judgment, remit the entire balance of each account listed in Appendix A to the Commission by certified check(s) or other guaranteed funds payable to the Federal Trade Commission, Financial Management Office, or by wire transfer in accordance with directions provided by the Commission. In no event shall the sum of all balances remitted by Defendant pursuant to this Paragraph IV.B be less than $6,500.00 (six thousand five hundred dollars). The check(s) or written confirmation of the wire transfer(s) shall be delivered to: Associate Director, Division of Marketing Practices, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, H-286, Washington, DC 20580.
- C. Any and all funds or assets transferred or paid pursuant to this Part IV shall be deposited into a fund administered by the Commission or its agent to be used for equitable relief, including, but not limited to, consumer redress and any attendant expenses for the administration of any redress fund. In the event that redress to consumers is wholly or partially impracticable, or any funds remain after redress is completed, the Commission may apply any remaining funds to such other equitable relief (including consumer information remedies) as it determines to be reasonably related to Defendant's practices alleged in the Amended Complaint. Any funds not used for such equitable relief shall be deposited in the United States Treasury as disgorgement. Defendant shall have no right to contest the manner of distribution or other disposition of funds chosen by the Commission. The Commission in its sole discretion may use a designated agent to administer consumer redress.

- D. In the event of any default in the transfer of assets required by Paragraph IV.B, which default continues for ten (10) days beyond the due date of transfer, the entire unpaid monetary judgment of $4,250,000, together with interest, as computed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1961 from the date of default to the date of payment, shall immediately become due and payable, and in that event, Plaintiff is hereby authorized to execute judgment for such amount against Defendant. Provided, however, that in all other respects this Judgment shall remain in full force and effect.
- E. Plaintiff's agreement to this Judgment is expressly premised upon the truthfulness, accuracy, and completeness of Defendant's sworn financial statement dated April 13, 2007, and supporting documents, as well as the sworn deposition testimony given by Defendant on July 24, 2007, all of which include material information upon which Plaintiff has relied in negotiating and agreeing to this Judgment. If, upon motion by Plaintiff, this Court finds that Defendant has failed to disclose any material asset or materially misstated the value of any asset in the financial statements, related documents, or testimony described above, or has made any other material misstatement or omission in the financial statements, related documents, or testimony described above, then the Court shall lift the suspension of the judgment and require payment of the full amount of the judgment described in Paragraph IV.A, less the net value of all assets transferred pursuant to Paragraph IV.B of this Judgment. This amount shall be immediately due and payable, together with interest computed at the rate prescribed under 28 U.S.C. § 1961. Provided, however, that in all other respects this Judgment shall remain in full force and effect.

- F. In accordance with 31 U.S.C. § 7701, Defendant is hereby required, unless he has done so already, to furnish the Commission his taxpayer identification numbers (Social Security numbers and employer identification numbers), which shall be used for purposes of collecting and reporting on any delinquent amount arising out of Defendant's relationship with the government.
- G. Defendant is further required, unless he has done so already, to provide the Commission with clear, legible and full-size photocopies of all valid driver's licenses he possesses, which will be used for reporting and compliance purposes.
- H. Defendant agrees that the facts as alleged in the Amended Complaint filed in this action shall be taken as true, without further proof, for the purpose of any action to collect the judgment, including, but not limited to, a nondischargeability complaint in any bankruptcy case.
- I. Any proceedings instituted under this Part IV are in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other civil or criminal remedies that may be provided by law, including any other proceedings Plaintiff may initiate to enforce this Judgment.

V. LIFTING OF THE ASSET FREEZE

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the freeze of Defendant's assets pursuant to the Stipulated Preliminary Injunction signed by the Court on January 6, 2007, and entered on January 10, 2007, shall be lifted to the extent necessary to transfer assets pursuant to Paragraph IV.B of this Judgment. Once all such assets have been transferred, the freeze of Defendant's remaining assets shall be lifted permanently.

VI. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF JUDGMENT

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within five (5) business days of receipt of this Judgment as entered by the Court, Defendant must submit to the Commission a truthful sworn statement acknowledging receipt of this Judgment.

Such notice shall include the name and address of each business that Defendant is affiliated with, employed by, creates or forms, or performs services for; a statement of the nature of the business; and a statement of Defendant's duties and responsibilities in connection with the business or employment; and

c. Any changes in Defendant's name, and any aliases or fictitious names adopted or used by Defendant.

2. Defendant shall notify the Commission of any changes in the corporate structure of any business entity that Defendant directly or indirectly controls, or has a majority ownership interest in, that may affect compliance obligations arising under this Judgment including, but not limited to, a dissolution, assignment, sale, merger, or other action that would result in the emergence of a successor entity; the creation or dissolution of a subsidiary, parent, or affiliate that engages in any acts or practices subject to this Judgment; the filing of a bankruptcy petition; or a change in the corporate name or address at least 30 days prior to such change; provided that, with respect to any proposed change in such a business entity about which Defendant learns less than thirty (30) days prior to the date such action is to take place, Defendant shall notify the Commission as soon as is practicable after obtaining such knowledge.

IX. RECORD-KEEPING PROVISIONS

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, for a period of eight (8) years from the date of entry of this Judgment, in connection with any business that Defendant directly or indirectly manages, controls, or has a majority ownership interest in, Defendant is hereby permanently restrained and enjoined from failing to create and retain the following records:

- A. Accounting records that reflect the cost of goods or services sold, revenues generated, and the disbursement of such revenues;
