ORDER TO SUPPLEMENT RECORD

Rule 3223(b) of the Anti-Doping and Medication Control Program of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (the “Authority”) specifies certain sanctions as a consequence of an Anti-Doping Rule Violation, including payment of “some or all of the adjudication costs . . . .” In its Supporting Legal Brief, the Authority states the following with regard to the $5,000 in arbitration costs assessed as Appellant’s portion of the adjudication below: “The $5,000 amount imposed upon Appellant here is a small fraction of the full costs of the proceeding below.” Authority Brief at 3; see also id. at 5, 7 (indicating that $5,000 is less than half of the total arbitration costs).

The Authority is hereby ORDERED to submit no later than October 2, 2024, as a supplement to the Appeal Book, documentation reflecting the total adjudication costs of the arbitration below.
